THE EXPERIENCE

We design and deliver challenging, educational and adventure-based experiences in the diverse and spectacular environment of New Zealand. Our location in the top of the South Island provides easy access to three national parks with the most spectacular wilderness backdrops, both on land and on the coast. Our programs can be tailored to focus on a particular theme or learning objective. Our program centers on a strong focus of leadership, sustainability, culture and connection to the environment. The experience can include a wide range of cultural, adventure or environmental activities, these can include: Waka Ama (traditional Maori canoe) or sea kayaking; hiking; caving, rock climbing or mountain biking. Cultural workshops could include a powhiri (welcome ceremony at a Marae – meeting house) mau rākau (martial art with sticks), haka (traditional dance performance), rongoa (Maori medicinal and traditional use of plants) and the preparing and cooking of traditional food. Environmental workshops could be marine or land focused with the opportunities to connect to a local service project.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Fly LAX to Nelson – New Zealand. Meet the instructor team and set up camp.

Day 2: Introduction to the Maori (indigenous people of NZ) culture – based on a local Marae (Meeting house)

Day 3-5 : Paddle waka (traditional Maori canoe) through Abel Tasman's stunning coastal national park. Explore indigenous approaches to conservation and cultural connections to the land and sea.

Day 6-9: Wilderness journey through alpine environments. Learning outcomes focused on building resilience and self-confidence

Day 10-12: Explore the geological features and the ecosystems of the underground network of limestone caves

Note: Longer or shorter programs are available on request. Programs are tailored to each group and will incorporate the learning outcomes identified as part of the program development process.
